

The Cannes OPENER

Welcome to Holy Trinity and our Harvest Thanksgiving, we're delighted you could join us and we extend a warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us today. Our service at 9:00am is Holy Communion, followed at 10:30am with All-Age Holy Communion, which will be live-streamed as usual via Facebook and YouTube.

There's no Sunday Club for the young people so they will stay in church for the whole service.

The 'parable of the rich fool' at the heart of this week's text illustrates simply and memorably the futility of choices made in isolation from the love of God and neighbour.

Jesus repeatedly warns that wealth can get in the way of our relationship with God. "Watch out!" he says. "Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions"

Jesus offers the antidote to accumulation of too much empty treasure in the promise that it is the Father's good pleasure to give the kingdom itself to his little flock. And the way to collect treasure of the heart suitable for that kingdom isn't the earthbound, inward-looking way of the 'rich fool' but the soaring, beautiful way of the one who lives and loves generously, lavishly, and with joy.

The special prayer for Harvest

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season; grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

"All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above, then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all His love."
