The Cannes OPENER

Welcome to Holy Trinity, on this Remembrance Sunday, we're delighted you could join us and we extend a warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us. Both our services at 9:00am and 10:30am are Holy Communion with the 10:30am service being live-streamed as usual via Facebook and YouTube. There's a Sunday Club for the young people so they leave after the Children's talk.

We continue our sermon series on the life of Abraham. Genesis 14 is an account of one of the finest hours in Abram's life; it's an action-packed story of war between ancient city-states with a surprising conclusion as he defeats four kings in battle, declines the riches of men, and expresses His faith in God.

Abram provides for those who are under his care, but he makes sure that in so doing, his own convictions and promises from God are not compromised in any way. He has faced two wars and with God's help, came through both victoriously. He defeated the enemies, and conquered a temptation. Why? Because in both situations, he trusted and relied upon God. Whether you are facing a physical threat or a spiritual battle, your approach should be the same – trust in God, rely upon Him for the strength and wisdom to make it through.

Remembrance Sunday

On this Remembrance Sunday, we remember those who gave their lives during the wars past and present. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:9,10). There are poppies on sale with the proceeds going to the Royal British Legion.

Word for Today

Copies of the latest edition of Word for Today, encouraging words for every day, together with the young people's version are available. A donation in the box provided would be appreciated. Thank you.

United Celebration Service

Please join us next Sunday afternoon for a united celebration service with the other Anglican chaplaincies along the Riviera. It will be at Holy Trinity Church in Nice at 4:30pm. It will be an opportunity to meet our bishop, Robert Innes and the archdeacon of France, Peter Hooper.

Church Lunch

Our wonderful catering team are preparing a Church lunch next Sunday after the 10:30am service. Places will be limited to 30 and a pass sanitaire will be required. There's a sign-up sheet on the noticeboard, so book your place today!

Concert of Grand Opera

On Saturday 27th November at 6pm there'll be a concert in Church of Grand Opera performed by Liberi Cantori. See the poster and flyers in the church centre for more details.

Christmas Sales

We are holding a series of Christmas Sales on Sundays 28th November, 5th and 12th December immediately after our 10:30am service. On sale will be knitwear, jams and chutney, paintings, jewellery - great ideas for Christmas presents - Christmas cards and of course our home baked cakes and mince pies. If you are able to bake cakes or make or provide things for any of the sale days, that would be great. If you're wondering what you can contribute, please speak with Judith or Eileen.

Donations to the Church

We thank God for all those who support the church however great or small their gift either by planned giving or donation, we rely entirely on your generosity. Donations can be made in various ways, by bank transfer (bank details below) or by Yapla on the donations page of our website. Thank you.
