

The Cannes OPENER

Welcome to Holy Trinity on this Palm Sunday and a warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us today, we're glad that you're able to join us. We're delighted to welcome back Revd. Philip Harbridge who will minister to us today and during Holy Week. Our service at 9:00am is Holy Communion followed at 10:30am with Morning Prayer which will be live streamed as usual via Facebook for those unable to attend.

There's a Sunday Club for the children so they will leave for their groups after the children's talk.

Jesus enters Jerusalem, welcomed by the people as the Messiah who will free them from Roman rule. His entrance on a donkey, fulfils prophecy and symbolises the peaceful nature of His first coming. On that day there are shadows and glimpses of who Jesus truly is and many seem to see Him as worthy of honor. But while they may have recognized Jesus as a reason for hope, or perhaps even as the Promised One of God, we can say with certainty that they underestimated His greatness.

Prayer for Palm Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, in your tender love towards the human race you sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

After the service

After the 10:30am service there will be private prayer ministry in the sanctuary area for anyone in particular need. Join us for coffee in the Church centre and continue our fellowship together. There's a church fellowship lunch for those who have booked in advance.
