

The Cannes OPENER

Welcome to Holy Trinity on this 3rd Sunday of Easter, we're delighted to have you with us today and we especially welcome any visitors worshipping with us. Our service at 10:30 is Morning Prayer which will also be live-streamed as usual via Facebook. There's a Sunday Club for the young people, so they will leave after the children's talk.

Getting Our ACTS Together

This is the second major sermon in the early church. People who are weary of the church's incessant arguing about theology sometimes yearn for the "simple message of the early church." That's understandable, but this sermon is anything but simple. Like the other recorded sermons, this one explains the event that drew the crowd together, confronts them with their sin, proclaims the centrality of the risen Christ using the Old Testament to clarify who he was, calls sinners to repent and turn to God, and shows the deeper meaning of the work of Christ.

Prayer for Today

Almighty Father, in your great mercy you gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

After the service

Continue our time of fellowship together over a cup of coffee in the church centre. For those attending the Annual General Meeting, please get a drink and return to the church.

Condolences

For those who remember Peter Durlacher, his daughter Sophie has been in contact to say that he died recently with his children by his side, aged 88. He had been ill for a very long time. Peter was a faithful member of Holy Trinity church and the British Association for many years. We offer our sincere condolences to his family.

Donations to the Church

We thank God for all those who support the church however great or small their gift either by weekly offerings, planned giving or donation. If you're not able to come to the church personally, then please consider giving either by bank transfer or by Yapla on the donations page of our website. Thank you.
