The Cannes OPENER

A new month... a new Chaplain... new beginnings.

Welcome to Holy Trinity, on this special Sunday as we officially license our new Chaplain. We offer a special welcome to fellow clergy, supporters and any visitors worshipping with us today.

Our service at 10:30 is the Licensing and Installation of Revd. Andy Brewerton by the Archdeacon, Peter Hooper. The service will also be live-streamed as usual via Facebook for those unable to attend. There's a Sunday Club for the young people.

At the Transfiguration, Jesus stands in impressive company, sharing the moment with two others who know what it is to share close communion with God. He may be hard to see clearly in all his intricate detail, what with the radiant glare and the transfigured body, but sometimes, at least he's surely there.

The bright light of the Transfiguration affirms life, a light that shines ahead, never without hope and confidence. This light speaks a promise that God is here. And that God is knowable. God seeks relationship. Because God is life.

Prayer for Today

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth.
to the glory of your name.
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

After the service
