The Cannes OPENER

Good morning to you, and a very warm welcome to Holy Trinity Church and our service of Holy Communion, remembering Jesus in bread and wine.

Our Bible teaching today is continuing in the book of Nehemiah, chapter three, where we see a huge team of people getting their hands dirty as under Nehemiah's direction, they begin to put Jerusalem back together.

Maybe the most surprising thing here is the incredible diversity of trades and professions that roll up their sleeves and do their bit for the project. From priests to perfume-makers, there's room for everyone in God's building team.

With so much positivity, it's interesting to read about the Noble men from Tekoa, who make it to Nehemiah's list for the wrong reasons – the only group who refused to help out. We'll see how much better it is to be noted for joining in, rather than missing out.

Our 10.30am service will include the Sunday Club for children, any children visiting today are welcome to join the group. Refreshments will be served afterwards in the church centre, please do stay if you can.

Prayer for Today

O Lord, mercifully hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that we may both perceive and know what things we ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

After the service...

Prayer Ministry is available after the service for anyone in particular need, just come up to the sanctuary area and there'll be someone there to pray with you in private.

Church Family news

We have received the following email from Pierre-Marie regarding his studies in Montreal, Canada:

"I have started my Fall semester at McGill University. I am studying for a Bachelor of Arts and Science taking Maths and Political Science courses. I miss the Sunday services at Holy Trinity as I had been attending the mass since 2014 with my mother Ana and my sister Alexandra. I hope that all the community is fine and I look forward to seeing you all again as I return to Cannes next summer."

We wish Pierre-Marie every blessing and success for the future.

Condolences

It is with great sadness that we announce the recent death of Bill Johnston-Rudd. Bill and Elma were part of our Church family for many years. We send our sincere condolences to Elma and the family at this sad time.

Harvest Thanksgiving

Our Harvest Thanksgiving will be on Sunday 29th September at 10:30am. This will be a family service and the children will remain in church. As in previous years, please bring gifts of non-perishable food which will be given to Bras Ouverts, an association which provides for those in need locally. If you are able to bring fruit and vegetables to display in the Church that would be great.

Donations to the Church

We thank God for all those who support the church however great or small their gift either by weekly offerings, planned giving or donation. If you're not able to come to the church personally, then please consider giving either by bank transfer or by Yapla on the donations page of our website. Thank you.
