

The Cannes OPENER

Welcome to Holy Trinity today and to our services of Holy Communion. We begin a short series today from the book of Revelation, 'The End of Everything'.

Over these next four weeks we're going to be spending time in the very last pages of the Bible, seeing where the big story of the Bible ends up – God's new creation, the new heavens and the new earth, God and people reconciled.

Within this vision we see Jesus as the bridegroom and we, the church, his bride. It's a place of much beauty and much joy, the world as we know it re-cast into perfection: no more death or mourning or crying or pain.

I'm hoping these chapters will be a great encouragement to us: knowing where we're going will give us a joyful expectation for this amazing future that God has prepared for all those who love him.

Our 10.30am service will include the Sunday Club for children, any children visiting today are welcome to join the group. Refreshments will be served afterwards in the church centre, please do stay if you can.

Prayer for this Sunday

Almighty and eternal God, you have kindled the flame of love in the hearts of the saints: grant to us the same faith and power of love, that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may be sustained by their example and fellowship; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

After the service

There'll be a Church fellowship lunch on Sunday 10th November. There's a sign-up sheet on the notice board if you would like to join us.

Christmas Sales

Christmas is coming!... it's fast approaching that time of year and we are planning to hold two Christmas Sales on Sunday 1st and Sunday 8th December immediately after our 10:30am service. On sale will be knitwear, jams and chutney, paintings, jewellery - great ideas for Christmas presents - Christmas cards and of course home baked cakes and mince pies. Who can resist!

If you are able to bake cakes or make/bring things for any of the sale days, that would be great. We also need volunteers to help on the stalls.

Eco tip: composting.

Composting organic leftovers not only prevents food waste, but also provides a valuable fertiliser for plants. These days many Mairies offer free composters. Perhaps you haven't got a garden? If you live in an apartment all you need to set up an earthworm farm is a box, organic scraps and a few earthworms. Use the result for balcony planting. Kids and grand-kids will love them!
